Chapter 1 by PigletPinkPancake

Today was the day! I was so happy. Ben was finally coming home. I had been waiting for three years. And he was finally here!

All the people crowding the entrance made it very hard to find him. But I knew that when I do find him it will be easy. His dark brown eyes and beautiful blonde hair that falls in front of his face no matter how many times he tries to move it. Plus he would be wearing his uniform. He was stationed in Afghanistan.

I was scared that I would never see him again.

But know he's finally coming home! I looked around the airport still waiting for Ben. I loved him. And would do anything for him. That was my first mistake.

For Hours I waited. I felt like I was lost without him. That the world had no purpose. I was blinded. I didn't know the truth. Could I trust him? I kept thinking to myself that he is probably just having some problems with security.

But he never came.
